

CONCEITED

Meaning: Conceited means having an excessively high opinion of oneself and one's abilities.

1. She was so conceited that she refused to accept any criticism, no matter how constructive.
2. His conceited attitude alienated his friends and left him feeling isolated.
3. The conceited athlete boasted about his achievements, often overshadowing his teammates' contributions.
4. Despite his talent, his conceited demeanor made it difficult for others to appreciate his work.
5. Her conceited remarks during the meeting revealed a deep-seated insecurity that she tried to mask.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conceited>