

CONCEITEDLY

Meaning: Conceitedly means in a manner that shows excessive pride in oneself or one's achievements.

1. She strutted around the room conceitedly, oblivious to the stares of disapproval.
2. He spoke conceitedly about his recent promotion, making everyone else feel small in comparison.
3. Conceitedly, she dismissed their criticisms as simple envy of her success.
4. The artist gazed at his latest work conceitedly, convinced it was his best piece yet.
5. He laughed conceitedly, relishing the attention and admiration from his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conceitedly>