

CONCEIVE

Meaning: To conceive means to form or devise (a plan, idea, or image) in the mind.

1. She was able to conceive a brilliant idea that transformed the project.
2. Many people find it difficult to conceive of a world without technology.
3. The artist struggled to conceive a concept that truly captured her vision.
4. As they discussed their plans, they began to conceive of a new approach to the problem.
5. It is often challenging to conceive the vastness of the universe.
6. She was unable to conceive a plan that would satisfy everyone involved.
7. The artist struggled to conceive a new idea for her upcoming exhibition.
8. It is often difficult to conceive the vastness of the universe.
9. They were overjoyed when they finally conceived their first child after years of trying.
10. Many great inventions began when someone dared to conceive of something entirely new.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conceive>