

CONCENT

Meaning: Concent (verb): To focus or direct attention and efforts towards a specific goal or task.

1. We need to concent our efforts on improving the project's timeline.
2. To achieve better results, it's essential to concent on the task at hand without distractions.
3. The teacher encouraged students to concent on their studies during exam week.
4. In a noisy environment, it can be challenging to concent on reading a book.
5. He found it difficult to concent when his mind was filled with worries about the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concent>