

CONCERN

Meaning: Concern (noun): a feeling of worry or anxiety about a particular issue or situation.

1. The rising temperatures are a cause for concern among climate scientists.
2. She expressed her concern about the impact of pollution on local wildlife.
3. His lack of response to the urgent email raised concerns among the team.
4. The community came together to address their shared concerns regarding safety.
5. Financial instability remains a significant concern for many families in the area.
6. Her main concern was whether the project would meet its deadline.
7. The community expressed concern about the rise in local crime rates.
8. He tried to alleviate her concerns by providing all the necessary information.
9. Environmental concerns have prompted many companies to adopt sustainable practices.
10. Despite their concerns, the team decided to proceed with the experiment.
11. Her main concern was the well-being of her family during the crisis.
12. The lack of communication from the management raised several concerns among the employees.
13. Environmental concerns have prompted the government to implement stricter regulations.
14. His heartfelt concern for the homeless led him to volunteer at the shelter every weekend.
15. She expressed her concern about the potential impact of the new policy on education.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concern>