CONCESSIONIST

Meaning: Concessionist: a person who advocates for or makes compromises, particularly in negotiations or conflict resolution.

1. The concessionist argued that some compromises were necessary for peace negotiations to succeed.

2. As a seasoned concessionist, she expertly navigated the complex negotiations between the two rival factions.

3. His reputation as a concessionist earned him respect among colleagues who valued diplomatic solutions.

4. In the heated debate, the concessionist's willingness to find common ground was a refreshing approach.

5. Many viewed the concessionist's proposals as a pragmatic way to address the contentious issues at hand.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concessionist