

CONCIATOR

Meaning: Conciliator: a person who mediates disputes and aims to bring about agreement or harmony between conflicting parties.

1. The concilator played a crucial role in mediating the discussions between the two conflicting parties.
2. As a skilled concilator, she was able to bridge the gap and foster understanding among diverse groups.
3. During the negotiations, the concilator focused on finding common ground to facilitate a peaceful resolution.
4. His reputation as a concilator made him the go-to person for settling disputes within the community.
5. In the conference, the concilator emphasized the importance of empathy and active listening in conflict resolution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conciator>