

CONCILIATING

Meaning: Conciliating refers to actions or attitudes that aim to placate, appease, or reconcile differing parties to reduce conflict or tension.

1. Her conciliating approach helped ease the tensions between the two rival groups.
2. The mediator's conciliating tone made it easier for both parties to reach an agreement.
3. In a conciliating gesture, he offered to share the resources equally among everyone involved.
4. The leader's conciliating remarks during the meeting fostered a spirit of cooperation among the team.
5. She was known for her conciliating nature, always striving to find common ground in disputes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conciliating>