

CONCILIATOR

Meaning: A conciliator is a person who mediates disputes and helps parties reach an agreement or understanding.

1. The conciliator skillfully mediated the dispute between the two parties, fostering a sense of understanding.
2. In times of conflict, a conciliator can play a crucial role in bridging gaps and finding common ground.
3. Her ability to remain neutral made her an excellent conciliator in family disputes.
4. After several hours of discussion, the conciliator helped both sides reach a mutually beneficial agreement.
5. The conciliator's experience in conflict resolution was invaluable during the tense negotiations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conciliator>