

CONCLAMATION

Meaning: Conclamation: a loud or enthusiastic expression of approval or celebration by a crowd.

1. The crowd erupted in a loud conclamation as the champion was declared.
2. Her speech was met with enthusiastic conclamation, signaling the audience's approval.
3. In the quiet town, the annual festival brought forth a joyous conclamation that filled the streets.
4. The artist's performance concluded with a powerful conclamation that left everyone in awe.
5. As the team lifted the trophy, the conclamation from their supporters echoed through the stadium.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conclamation>