

CONCLUDENT

Meaning: Concludent (adjective): providing a decisive conclusion or clear evidence that leads to a definite outcome or judgment.

1. The evidence presented in the trial was concludent, leading the jury to a swift decision.
2. Although the results were promising, they were not concludent enough to warrant immediate action.
3. Her arguments were concludent, leaving no room for doubt about her position on the matter.
4. In a concludent manner, the researchers summarized their findings, emphasizing their implications for future studies.
5. The analysis provided a concludent explanation for the unexpected results observed in the experiment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concludent>