

CONCLUSIVELY

Meaning: CONCLUSIVELY: in a manner that leaves no doubt or ambiguity; definitively.

1. The detective presented evidence that conclusively proved the suspect's innocence.
2. Her research conclusively demonstrated the effectiveness of the new treatment.
3. The jury's decision was based on testimonies that conclusively linked the defendant to the crime.
4. After extensive testing, the scientists conclusively affirmed their hypothesis about climate change.
5. The findings of the study conclusively established a correlation between diet and health outcomes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conclusively>