

CONCLUSIVENESS

Meaning: Conclusiveness refers to the quality of being decisive and leaving no doubt or uncertainty in a given context.

1. The conclusiveness of the evidence presented in court left no room for doubt.
2. Researchers emphasized the need for conclusiveness in their findings to influence policy changes.
3. While the study showed promising results, its conclusiveness was questioned by peers in the field.
4. The conclusiveness of her argument convinced the committee to approve the proposal.
5. In science, the conclusiveness of experimental results is essential for establishing new theories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conclusiveness>