

CONCOLOROUS

Meaning: Concolorous: having the same color or uniform coloration, often used to describe harmonious color schemes or camouflage in nature.

1. The artist chose a concolorous palette to create a sense of harmony in the landscape painting.
2. During the study of camouflage, researchers focused on how certain animals became concolorous with their surroundings.
3. The concolorous design of the building helped it blend seamlessly into the natural environment.
4. In fashion, concolorous outfits often evoke a sense of elegance and sophistication.
5. The botanist noted that the concolorous leaves of the plant provided excellent protection from predators.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concolorous>