

CONCORD

Meaning: Concord refers to a state of agreement or harmony among individuals or groups.

1. The two nations signed a treaty in hopes of establishing lasting concord.
2. In a remarkable display of concord, the diverse community came together to celebrate their shared heritage.
3. The choir's harmonies created a sense of concord that resonated with everyone in the audience.
4. Finding concord amidst differing opinions can often lead to innovative solutions.
5. The development of concord between the rival teams was a significant achievement for the organizers.
6. The two countries signed a treaty in the spirit of concord, aiming for lasting peace.
7. In a surprising display of concord, the opposing factions agreed to collaborate on the community project.
8. Music has an extraordinary ability to create a sense of concord among diverse groups of people.
9. The concord between science and art was evident in the innovative exhibition that showcased both fields.
10. She spoke about the importance of fostering concord in a world often divided by conflict and misunderstanding.
11. The two nations reached a state of concord after years of negotiation.
12. In music, concord refers to a harmonious combination of notes that pleases the ear.
13. The community worked in concord to achieve a common goal of enhancing local education.
14. He spoke of the importance of fostering concord among diverse cultural groups.
15. The agreement was seen as a symbol of concord in a time of division.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concord>