

CONCORDABLE

Meaning: Concordable: capable of being in agreement or harmony with something else.

1. The findings of the study were concordable with previous research on the topic.
2. Her ideas about the project were concordable with the team's overall vision.
3. It was essential to ensure that the new policy was concordable with existing regulations.
4. The data collected from different sources proved to be concordable, reinforcing the initial hypothesis.
5. In discussions, they found many of their beliefs were concordable, leading to a stronger partnership.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concordable>