

CONCORDANT

Meaning: Concordant means in agreement or harmony with something, often referring to consistent or compatible results or opinions.

1. The scientists sought concordant results in their experiments to validate the theory.
2. Her views on climate change are concordant with the findings of the latest research.
3. The committee's decisions were concordant, reflecting a unified stance on the issue.
4. In a concordant tone, the speaker addressed the audience, emphasizing the need for collaboration.
5. The two studies produced concordant data, reinforcing the reliability of the conclusions drawn.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concordant>