

CONCULCATING

Meaning: Conculcating: characterized by a forceful or oppressive manner of exerting control or influence over something or someone.

1. The ancient Romans were known for their conculcating methods of controlling the land for agriculture.
2. His conculcating approach to negotiations often left his opponents feeling overwhelmed and defeated.
3. In a fit of rage, she began conculcating the flowers in the garden, not realizing the damage she was causing.
4. The conculcating footsteps echoed through the empty hallway, signaling the arrival of someone important.
5. Her conculcating glare silenced the room, demanding attention and respect from everyone present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conculcating>