

CONCUR

Meaning: To agree or have the same opinion on a particular matter.

1. The committee members concur on the need for a new policy to address climate change.
2. After reviewing the evidence, the scientists concur that the experiment was a success.
3. It is rare for such opposing viewpoints to concur, but they found common ground during the debate.
4. I concur with your assessment that the project requires more funding to succeed.
5. Even though they usually disagree, they concur that teamwork is essential for achieving their goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concur>