

CONCUSSION

Meaning: Concussion is a temporary injury to the brain caused by a blow to the head, often resulting in symptoms such as headache, confusion, and sensitivity to light or noise.

1. The athlete was sidelined for weeks after suffering a concussion during the game.
2. Doctors advised her to avoid screen time while recovering from her concussion.
3. He experienced memory loss and headaches, which were indicative of a concussion.
4. Proper helmets can significantly reduce the risk of concussion in contact sports.
5. After the incident, the coach emphasized the importance of recognizing concussion symptoms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/concussion>