

CONDEMNABLE

Meaning: Condemnable: deserving of strong disapproval or punishment due to moral or ethical wrongdoing.

1. The judge described the defendant's actions as utterly condemnable and deserving of severe punishment.
2. In a world striving for peace, any form of violence is considered condemnable by the majority of society.
3. Her remarks about the marginalized community were viewed as condemnable and sparked widespread outrage.
4. The organization's practices were labeled as condemnable by human rights advocates around the globe.
5. Many deemed the politician's inflammatory rhetoric as not only irresponsible but also condemnable in a democratic society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condemnable>