

CONDEMNATORY

Meaning: Condemnatory: expressing strong disapproval or criticism of someone or something.

1. The judge issued a condemnatory statement regarding the defendant's actions.
2. Her condemnatory remarks during the meeting made it clear that she disapproved of the proposal.
3. The film received a condemnatory review, criticizing its lack of originality and depth.
4. In his speech, he used condemnatory language to address the corruption in the government.
5. The letter was filled with condemnatory phrases, reflecting the author's strong disapproval of the policy changes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condemnatory>