

CONDESCENDING

Meaning: Condescending: displaying a patronizing attitude or behavior that suggests superiority over others.

1. Her condescending tone made it clear that she didn't respect his opinion.
2. Despite his accomplishments, he often felt belittled by her condescending remarks.
3. The manager's condescending attitude towards his team discouraged open communication.
4. She appreciated honest feedback but disliked the condescending way it was delivered.
5. In conversations, he tried to avoid being condescending, valuing collaboration over superiority.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condescending>