

CONDESCENT

Meaning: Condescending: displaying a patronizing attitude or behavior, suggesting superiority over others.

1. Her condescending tone during the meeting made it difficult for others to share their ideas.
2. He often came across as condescending, assuming he knew better than everyone else in the room.
3. Despite his expertise, he tried to avoid a condescending attitude when mentoring new employees.
4. Many found her condescending remarks patronizing, which led to a tense atmosphere in the office.
5. To foster collaboration, it's important to communicate without a condescending attitude towards colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condescent>