

CONDOLE

Meaning: To express sympathy or sorrow to someone who is experiencing grief or loss.

1. The community came together to condole the family after their tragic loss.
2. She wrote a heartfelt note to condole with her friend during this difficult time.
3. At the memorial service, many attendees took the opportunity to condole with the grieving parents.
4. It is customary to condole with those who have recently suffered the death of a loved one.
5. He offered to condole with her in person, knowing how much she needed support.
6. The community came together to condole with the family during their time of loss.
7. In her speech, she took a moment to condole the victims' families and express her sympathy.
8. He wrote a heartfelt letter to condole with his friend after hearing about the tragedy.
9. During the memorial service, attendees gathered to condole and share memories of the departed.
10. The organization organized a support group to help those who wished to condole with others in grief.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condole>