CONDOLEMENT

Meaning: Condolement refers to the expression of sympathy or sorrow, especially in response to someone's loss or tragedy.

1. The community gathered to express their condolement for the family affected by the tragedy.
2. He sent a heartfelt card of condolement after hearing about her loss.
3. Her words of condolement resonated deeply with everyone at the memorial service.
4. During the meeting, the manager offered his condolement to the employees facing personal hardships.
5. They organized a charity event as a gesture of condolement for those impacted by the disaster.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condolement