CONDOLER

Meaning: A condoler is a person who offers comfort and sympathy to someone who is grieving or in mourning.

1. She was a great condoler, always offering comfort and support to those in mourning.
2. The condoler struggled to find the right words to express sympathy at the funeral.
3. As a professional condoler, he knew how to ease the pain of loss with his compassionate presence.
4. In times of grief, a true condoler can make all the difference in helping others heal.
5. He had a natural gift for being a condoler, knowing exactly when to offer a listening ear or a warm hug.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/condoler