

CONDUCTIBLE

Meaning: Conducible: capable of leading to or contributing to a particular outcome or result.

1. The results of the experiment were conducive to a deeper understanding of the phenomenon.
2. In the context of the study, the findings are not easily conducive to practical applications.
3. Their cooperative efforts were conducive to the project's overall success.
4. Despite the challenges, the environment was conducive to innovative thinking and creativity.
5. The data collected was conducive to forming a strong hypothesis about the underlying issue.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conducible>