

CONDUCTIVENESS

Meaning: Conduciveness refers to the quality of being favorable or beneficial for a particular outcome or activity.

1. The conduciveness of the environment to learning can significantly impact student performance.
2. Researchers studied the conduciveness of various settings for fostering creativity among artists.
3. The team's success was largely due to the conduciveness of their collaborative atmosphere.
4. For a healthy relationship, the conduciveness of open communication is essential.
5. Her positive attitude contributed to the conduciveness of the workplace, making it more enjoyable for everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conduciveness>