CONFECTIONER

Meaning: A confectioner is a person or business that makes and sells sweets and candies, particularly chocolates and other confections.

1. The confectioner created an exquisite assortment of chocolates for the wedding reception.
2. After years of training, she finally opened her own shop as a master confectioner.
3. The local confectioner is famous for his unique flavors and artistic cake designs.
4. Children eagerly awaited their turn at the confectioner's counter, eyes wide with delight.
5. At the fair, the skilled confectioner demonstrated how to make traditional candy apples.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confectioner