

CONFECTORY

Meaning: Confectory (noun): A shop or establishment that sells confections, such as candies and sweets.

1. The confectory was filled with an array of colorful sweets that tempted every passerby.
2. Each holiday season, the local confectory creates unique chocolate shapes to celebrate the festivities.
3. He decided to open his own confectory after years of working in high-end pastry shops.
4. As a child, I would spend hours exploring the confectory, mesmerized by the display of candies and treats.
5. The confectory's signature fudge was so popular that it often sold out within hours of being made.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confectory>