

CONFERRABLE

Meaning: Conferrable: capable of being granted or bestowed, especially in relation to rights or knowledge.

1. The conferrable rights of the employees were clearly outlined in the new contract.
2. Her expertise was seen as conferrable knowledge that could benefit the entire team.
3. The university offers several conferrable credits that can be applied to different degree programs.
4. In this project, we aim to identify conferrable skills that enhance employability.
5. His conferrable achievements in research earned him a prestigious award in his field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conferrable>