

CONFESSION

Meaning: Confession: a formal statement acknowledging one's faults, sins, or struggles, often shared to seek understanding or inspire others.

1. His confession brought a wave of relief and understanding to the entire room.
2. She made a heartfelt confession about her struggles, hoping to inspire others.
3. The detective carefully listened to the suspect's confession, searching for inconsistencies.
4. In a moment of vulnerability, he finally uttered the confession he had long buried.
5. Her confession of love caught him completely off guard, leaving him speechless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confession>