

CONFESSIONIST

Meaning: A confessionist is a person who openly shares personal secrets or burdens, often in a therapeutic or supportive setting.

1. The confessionist revealed their deepest secrets during the group therapy session.
2. As a confessionist, she felt a sense of liberation whenever she shared her burdens with others.
3. Many people found comfort in the words of the confessionist, who spoke with sincerity and empathy.
4. The role of the confessionist often involves guiding others to confront their own truths.
5. In literature, the confessionist character often undergoes a profound transformation through their revelations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confessionist>