

CONFESSOR

Meaning: A confessor is a person, often a priest, who hears confessions and provides spiritual guidance or counsel.

1. The priest served as a trusted confessor for many in the community.
2. In literature, the character often turns to a confessor for guidance during their moral dilemmas.
3. She sought out her confessor to unburden her heart after a difficult decision.
4. The confessor listened patiently, offering wisdom without judgment.
5. He found solace in the quiet presence of his confessor, who understood his struggles.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confessor>