

CONFIDE

Meaning: To confide means to share personal, private thoughts or feelings with someone trusted.

1. She felt comfortable enough to confide her deepest fears to her best friend.
2. After weeks of hesitation, he decided to confide in his therapist about his struggles.
3. It's important to have someone you can trust to confide your thoughts and feelings in.
4. During their late-night talks, she would often confide secrets that she had never shared with anyone else.
5. He chose to confide in his mentor, hoping for guidance during this challenging time.
6. She decided to confide in her best friend about her struggles at work.
7. It's important to have someone you can confide in when times get tough.
8. He felt relieved after he chose to confide his fears to a trusted mentor.
9. Many people find it easier to confide their thoughts in a journal rather than to another person.
10. After years of friendship, she knew she could finally confide her secrets to him.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confide>