

CONFIDENTIAL

Meaning: Confidential refers to information that is intended to be kept secret or private and is restricted to a specific group of people.

1. The company requires all employees to sign a confidentiality agreement before accessing confidential information.
2. She was careful not to share any confidential details about the project during the meeting.
3. The report was marked as confidential, limiting its distribution to only a select group of executives.
4. He received a confidential memo that outlined the new security protocols for handling sensitive data.
5. Maintaining confidentiality is crucial in fostering trust between clients and service providers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confidential>