

CONFINE

Meaning: To confine means to restrict or limit something within certain boundaries or parameters.

1. The artist felt confined by the narrow expectations of the gallery.
2. They decided to confine their discussions to the topics that mattered most.
3. The prisoners were confined to their cells for 23 hours each day.
4. In order to improve focus, she chose to confine her work to a designated space.
5. Scientists aim to confine the experiment to a controlled environment to ensure accurate results.
6. The researchers had to confine their experiments to a controlled environment to ensure accurate results.
7. He felt that the strict rules would confine his creativity and limit his potential.
8. During the meeting, they decided to confine the discussion to the most pressing issues facing the team.
9. The prison was designed to confine inmates securely while still allowing for rehabilitation programs.
10. To protect the delicate ecosystem, the park service will confine access to certain areas during the breeding season.
11. The doctor advised her to confine her activities to light exercises during her recovery.
12. They decided to confine the discussion to the main issues to save time.
13. The new regulations will confine the use of certain chemicals in the manufacturing process.
14. He felt it was unfair to confine his creativity within such strict boundaries.
15. To ensure safety, they had to confine the experiment to a controlled environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confine>