

CONFIRMABLE

Meaning: Confirmable: capable of being verified or substantiated through evidence or facts.

1. The scientist provided confirmable evidence to support her groundbreaking theory.
2. It is important to have confirmable facts before making any public statements.
3. The witness's account was deemed confirmable through multiple security camera recordings.
4. In the research paper, all claims were backed by confirmable data from reliable sources.
5. The results of the experiment were confirmable, leading to widespread acceptance in the scientific community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confirmable>