

CONFIRMATORY

Meaning: Confirmatory: serving to validate or verify findings or information.

1. The researchers conducted a confirmatory study to validate their initial findings.
2. Her role in the project was primarily confirmatory, ensuring that all data was accurate and reliable.
3. The confirmatory tests revealed that the new drug was effective in treating the condition.
4. They sought confirmatory evidence before making any changes to the existing policy.
5. In a confirmatory manner, the expert reiterated the importance of following safety protocols.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confirmatory>