

CONFISCATORY

Meaning: Confiscatory refers to policies or actions that involve seizing or taking possession of property, often by a government, typically in a manner perceived as unjust or excessively burdensome.

1. The government's confiscatory policies have sparked widespread protests among citizens.
2. Many critics argue that the new tax law has a confiscatory effect on the middle class.
3. In some jurisdictions, confiscatory seizures of property are carried out without due process.
4. The court ruled against the confiscatory measures, deeming them unconstitutional.
5. Confiscatory actions by the state often lead to distrust between the government and its citizens.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confiscatory>