

CONFITURE

Meaning: Confiture is a type of fruit preserve or jam, often made by cooking fruit with sugar until thickened, used as a spread or topping.

1. The breakfast table was adorned with an array of homemade confiture, each jar bursting with vibrant flavors.
2. She spread a generous layer of raspberry confiture on her warm scone, savoring the sweet-tart taste.
3. At the farmers' market, I found a charming stall selling artisanal confiture made from seasonal fruits.
4. The chef recommended pairing the duck dish with a fig confiture to enhance its rich flavors.
5. As the winter months approached, she began experimenting with different confiture recipes to gift to her friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confiture>