

CONFIX

Meaning: Confix: to securely fasten or join two or more components together, typically to enhance stability or strength.

1. The engineer decided to confix the two components to ensure maximum stability in the structure.
2. To confix the loose tiles, we used a strong adhesive that would withstand moisture and temperature changes.
3. In crafting the sculpture, the artist chose to confix various materials to create a unique and textured surface.
4. It was essential to confix the wires securely to prevent any electrical hazards during the installation.
5. After much deliberation, the team agreed to confix their resources for the upcoming project to enhance efficiency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confix>