

CONFLAGRANT

Meaning: Conflagrant refers to something that is burning intensely or is characterized by a strong, passionate intensity.

1. The conflagrant blaze consumed the dry forest within minutes.
2. As the conflagrant emotions surged between them, it was clear a confrontation was imminent.
3. The artist's conflagrant passion for his craft shone through in every brushstroke.
4. Residents were evacuated as the conflagrant fire threatened the nearby town.
5. In her speech, she spoke of the conflagrant desire for change that ignited the movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conflagrant>