

CONFLATION

Meaning: Conflation is the merging or blending of two or more distinct ideas, theories, or concepts into one, often leading to confusion or misunderstanding.

1. The conflation of multiple theories led to confusion in the scientific community.
2. His argument suffered from a conflation of different concepts, making it difficult to follow.
3. The conflation of personal beliefs with professional duties can lead to ethical dilemmas.
4. In literature, the conflation of genres often results in innovative storytelling.
5. Her speech was criticized for the conflation of facts and opinions, blurring the line between truth and perception.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conflation>