

CONFLUENT

Meaning: Confluent: flowing together or merging, especially in relation to ideas or entities.

1. The confluence of the two rivers creates a stunning landscape at the valley.
2. As the two ideas became confluent, the team was able to develop a more comprehensive strategy.
3. The confluent nature of their experiences helped them form a deep bond.
4. In biology, confluent cell cultures are essential for studying various cellular behaviors.
5. The artist's work is a confluent blend of traditional techniques and modern aesthetics.
6. The confluents of the two rivers formed a picturesque landscape.
7. In biology, confluents refer to cells that have grown together to form a continuous layer.
8. The confluents of various cultural influences shaped the city's unique identity.
9. During the meeting, the confluents of differing opinions led to a fruitful discussion.
10. As the streams became confluents, they created a powerful current that swept away debris.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confluent>