

CONFORM

Meaning: To conform means to comply with established standards, rules, or norms, particularly in behavior or beliefs within a group or organization.

1. It's important for new employees to conform to the company's culture and values.
2. Many students feel pressured to conform to their peers' expectations during high school.
3. The architect designed the building to conform to the historical architecture of the neighborhood.
4. In order to gain acceptance, she struggled to conform to the latest fashion trends.
5. The regulations require that all products must conform to safety standards before being sold.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conform>