CONFORMATION

Meaning: Conformation refers to the three-dimensional shape or structure of a molecule or physical form of an organism that influences its properties and functions.

1. The conformation of the molecule significantly affects its reactivity.

2. Her athletic prowess was evident in the conformation of her well-toned physique.

3. The architect praised the building's conformation, noting its harmony with the surrounding landscape.

4. In biology, the conformation of proteins is crucial for their function and interaction with other molecules.

5. The dog show judges evaluated each breed based on its adherence to the ideal conformation standards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conformation