

CONFORMATOR

Meaning: Conformer: a device or instrument used to ensure that components or materials meet specified standards or specifications.

1. The conformator ensures that all components meet the necessary specifications before assembly.
2. In the laboratory, the conformator is essential for verifying the accuracy of experimental results.
3. Engineers rely on the conformator to maintain consistency in product design and manufacturing processes.
4. The conformator device adjusts measurements in real time to optimize production efficiency.
5. By using a conformator, the team was able to reduce errors and improve overall quality control.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conformator>