

CONFOUNDER

Meaning: CONFOUNDER: A person or thing that causes confusion or perplexity.

1. The sudden change in the weather confounded the meteorologists' predictions.
2. Her ability to solve complex problems often confounded her classmates.
3. The magician's tricks never failed to confound the audience, leaving them in awe.
4. Despite his extensive research, the peculiar findings continued to confound the scientists.
5. The intricate plot of the novel was designed to confound even the most astute readers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/confounder>